

Don't Forget Your Bus Pass for free bus travel

Pupils eligible for free bus travel under the Young Persons' Free Bus Travel Scheme must present a valid/working National Entitlement Card (bus pass) when travelling.

Every journey made must be recorded so that the Scottish Government can pay bus operators. Tapping your pass when you board the bus each time you travel makes this possible.

If you cannot present a valid pass or alternative means of payment, the driver can refuse travel.

To help make your journeys to school easy and stress free, please follow these top tips:

Always tap your pass when you board the bus. This includes the bus to school!

Have a back-up bus fare and keep it in a safe place in your school bag, or a separate section in a purse or wallet, so you've always got it handy.

If your pass is faulty, damaged, or lost, you will be required to pay using an alternative method (e.g. contactless card/device or cash fare).

Parents/carers should ensure their child can pay the fare if their bus pass is not accepted – please make sure they have access to an alternative payment method.
